

We invite you to Success Insights accreditation training in Budapest

It is a perfect opportunity to work, rest and acquire new skills – all at the same time in a beautiful city!

During 4-5 days stay in Budapest you will have a chance to visit one of the most beautiful European capitals, get to know charm of the small Budapest's streets and see the landmarks. Hungary as a country of wine and salami gives you an opportunity to try fabulous and unique tastes. It is a city bursting with life 24 hours a day.

Everyone will find something to their tastes – apart from visiting beautiful landmarks of Budapest, you can have a rest walking on Margaret's Island, relax visiting one of numerous baths or taste Hungarian specialties such as gulyás soup.

Below you can find details concerning trainings, travel, accommodation and program.

DATES: Trainings in Budapest are carried out at least quarterly, please send us an e-mail or fill out a contact form available on the webpage in order to receive up-to-date and detailed information concerning upcoming trainings.

TRAVEL: Budapest is very well communicated with the rest of Europe, you can arrive by train, bus or plane.

The biggest train stations are Keleti pályaudvar, Déli pályaudvar and Nyugati pályaudvar. Majority of international trains leave from Keleti train station.

There are also numerous international bus connections to Budapest, majority of buses arrive to Népliget Bus station. Orangeways (<http://www.orangeways.com>) and Eurolines (<http://www.eurolines.com>) offer big number of connection from various cities in Europe.

If you decide to arrive to Budapest by plane, you will land at Budapest Franz Liszt International Airport, located around 16km from the city centre. There are two terminals and you can use both public transport (train or bus combined with metro) and taxi services to reach the city centre. There is a number of low-cost airlines operating in Budapest, the biggest among them are Ryanair and Wizzair.

ACCOMODATION: There is a big number of hostels, B&B and hotels of different standards to choose from in Budapest. Sites such as <http://www.booking.com> offer a vast choice of accommodation in Budapest, depending on standard, price and location.

Training will take place in our office, located in the 3rd district of Budapest, right next to Danube. There is a guesthouse located within walking distance from our office - Fontana Panzió

TRAINING:

PROGRAM

1. MODULE I.: BEHAVIOR, COMMUNICATION & MOTIVATION ASSESSMENT (2 days Training)

- Behavioral and Communication style assessments
- Personal Interests, Attitudes, Values and Workplace Motivators assessments
- Job assessment
- Understanding and reading profiles
- Understanding and reading group results
- Feedback of the personal assessment results
- Written and oral exam
- IDS (Internet Delivery System): Report Management and Applications

2. MODULE II.: COMPETENCE ASSESSMENT & JOB BENCHMARKING

(2 days Training)

- TriMetrix System
- Competence Map
- Understanding and reading profiles
- Feedback of the personal assessment results
- Job benchmarking
- People Management (selection, Coaching, Training, Talent Management)
- Report Management and Applications

ACCREDITATION

After successfully completed the certification exam, participants get Success Insights Certificates:

- CPBA - Certificated Professional Behavior Analyst
- CPVA - Certificated Professional Value Analyst,
- CPTA - Certified TriMetrix Analyst

Certification is valid for two years, after two years renewal is required.

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS

- Free of charge access to Success Insights Online Talent Management System
- Special price for products and services
- For active product users invitation to international expert network
- Use of SI CEE Client Center (professional materials, templates, research results, actualities, case studies, and others)

FREE TIME: Budapest offers a variety of activities and places worth visiting. Among the most famous ones following should be mentioned:

Castle Hill – beautiful hill on Buda side offers amazing views of Budapest as well as various landmarks, such as Royal Palace, Museum of History of Budapest and National Gallery.

Parliament building – located just next to Danube Parliament is one of the most recognizable symbols of Budapest.

St. Stephen's Basilica is another widely recognizable landmark of Budapest, visible from virtually any place in the city.

Great Synagogue and Jewish district – Budapest used to be home to a big Jewish majority. The Synagogue was open in 1859 and is one of the biggest and most beautiful synagogues in Europe. Next to it there is Jewish Museum and not far from it in the 7th district other synagogues can be found.

Along Andrássy street there are beautiful building of Opera, Terror House (museum devoted to Nazism and Communism in Hungary) and Museum of Fine Arts. The wide street leads to the Heroes' Square and big City Park where in summer you can row a boat and in winter you can go ice-skating on a huge ice-rink.

There are numerous baths in Budapest – among the most famous there are: Széchenyi Spa built in 1909 in the City Park is one of the largest spas in Europe, Király Baths – authentic Turkish baths and Gellért Baths, which represent Art Nouveau style.

You should definitely try Hungarian cuisine, the most famous dishes include: gulyás leves, pörkölt (stew with paprika and onion), halászlé (fish soup) and töltött káposzta (stuffed cabbage). There are also various desserts worth trying, such as Gundel palacsinta (sweet pancake) or Somlói galuska (mixture of biscuit, cream and chocolate sauce).